Year Five Home Learning

Home Learning - Week beginning 4th May 2020

Hello Year 5! Hope you have all had a good week. I can't wait for the sunny weather to return. Well done for winning the TT Rockstars battle this week! Shout outs to JP (1st), Gurdeep (2nd) and Izzy (3rd) for your efforts on TTRockstars this week. We are now in a battle with Year 3 on TT Rockstars - go get them! The bad news is that we are now 5th on Spelling Shed, and Reception are still beating us?! Great work to those who have been using EPIC and Read Theory. Overall we have read 136 books on EPIC, that's over 37 hours of reading! I will set some new books this week.

Friday 8th May is a bank holiday to celebrate the 75th anniversary of VE Day. Have a look through the PowerPoint and choose an activity to complete. Or design your own VE Day related activity!

Have a lovely bank holiday weekend with your family. Missing you lots, Mrs Sturman Xx

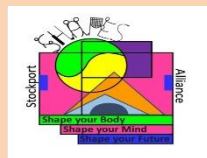

NEW!

VE DAY

See the 'VE Day' powerpoint in the attached files to learn about VEDay and then choose one or more of the activities to complete.

Don't forget to celebrate the 75th anniversary on Friday 8th May.

SHAPES Olympic Isolation Fun Pack

See the attached file where there is a pack designed to give you and your isolation household plenty of fun things to do inside or outside around an Olympic theme. The idea is to get adults and children all playing together in teams with adults supporting younger children to access the activities.
